President's Message:

Wow, November is already upon us, so the 2023 ACFA Tournament season is now in the books. We had a great day of weather and fishing for the last tournament of the year, and the results did not disappoint. What another fascinating finish. Always remember it's not over till it's over, and EVERY POINT counts!

There is still time to make entries into the 2023 Big Fish Contest (BFC) for all eligible species except for flounder which has closed season this month. But flounder may still be entered in the Catch, Photograph, & Release (CPR) contest, along with those eligible species until midnight November 14th. These two year-long contests form the base of the ACFA triad that when taken together determine the placement of our Anglers of the Year.

Our November meeting will feature a talk by Scott Elzey (Gulf2Bay). So, you can imagine he will be covering a wide range of fishing options as we are moving into the mid-fall period. Scott is a fine fisherman, and a great family man who enjoys all aspects our bay and surrounding waters have to offer.

November is also our election meeting. We have a few staff changes in store for next year with some fine additions too. Our Board of Directors will have some important decisions to make concerning the look and feel of upcoming tournaments, and perhaps even changing venues. Any thoughts or ideas you might have will be entertained. I have agreed to remain at the helm as President for an unprecedented 6th term. We could not have even gotten through this year without the help of all our officers and volunteers who have accomplished so much for us (MANY HANDS...). After a great first year, Perry Stokley will return as VP in charge of seminars. But he would like to incorporate any ideas you may have for new speakers, which ones you want to hear from again, or do NOT. Terry Wilson will continue doing a fine job as Treasurer. The Summers brothers (their wives and families) continue to do a fine job with Logo Items, as has Wayne Sanders with the Awards, including the transition to the new plaques. Wayne has some ideas about how to improve the system even more next year! Plus Romie Perez (and friends) wish to continue to bring nice meals and settings to our tournament weighins.

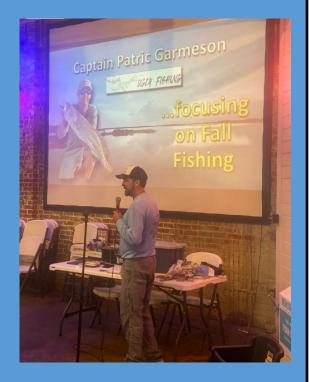

Beyond those positions, we propose some changes we hope will benefit everyone, including bringing in some "new blood" along with adding some tag-team efforts. As Kaci Stokley assumes her new studies and duties away from the club, her dad, Perry will step in as Weighmaster for those Tournaments. Micaiah Lindquist's work with Fishing Chaos has brought the ACFA into the 21st century. So, he will assume the Membership and Statistic duties incorporated into that entity while Robert Thornton and I take over writing the Newsletter. Donations will be handled by Colton Carlisle and Harvey Pepper as we try to garner more lure and bait manufacturers along with better recognition for our local sustaining corporate sponsors. If you have any ideas or leads to which lures you might want to see as door prizes let us know.

The drought has worsened across the region, but that usually means more salt water is up in the Delta. Stronger cold fronts through November usually bring increasing amounts of precipitation with them. So, better get on the Delta bite before it all ends! - David Thornton

OCTOBER 5TH MEETING RECAP

We had an great October meeting with Capt. Patric Garmeson of Ugly Fishing as our main speaker!

Although the turn out was a little less than our past few meetings, we all still had fine time and enjoyed some great food at Moe's barbecue! Captain Patric has a lots of insights on recent trends in the bay and your best options when it comes to catching all our favorite species during the fall transition.

We also heard from representatives of several local tournaments, including the Dog River Clear Water Revival, The Elaine Rowe Memorial Kid's Day Out, and the Bon Secour Butcher's Fishing for Families Tournament.

As always we had a great rod and reel raffle and many door prizes. We can't wait to see you at the next one!

OCTOBER 21ST TOURNAMENT REVIEW

We were met with near-perfect weather for our final tournament of 2023. Unfortunately, the bite didn't seem to be as good as the weather with many anglers reporting slow action at the weigh-in at Hooked Up by the Bay. Nonetheless, there were still some quality fish brought to the scales. We had a fair number of sheepshead brought to the scales and flounder remained highly competitive once again. The food was some of the best of the year with piles of fried fish, shrimp, oysters, and cheesecake with the beans, coleslaw and fries on the side! Huge shoutout of thanks to everyone that helped out with that! It was a great event to wrap up 2023!
