President's Message:

The 2023 ACFA Contest season is now in the books and all we have left is to do is celebrate the winners. So, we will gather together Friday night December 1st starting at 6:30pm at Moe's BBQ Downtown to do just that! It is always such a fine time when we get together and recognize the various accomplishments of one another and celebrate the completion of another year fished together. We don't do it for the money (that's for sure), and not just for the plaques, plates, or points either. The primary motivation is for "bragging rights" along with the admiration of our fellow fisher-men women and children in good hearted competition. After all, promoting friendship, fellowship, sportsmanship, and ethical conservation practices while fishing, with special emphasis on providing a family-oriented environment, is what ACFA is all about.

Be sure to check the standings and point totals later in the newsletter to see how you came out in the final plaque and trophy presentations. And be on hand to cheer your friends and family as it all builds up to reveal who will be our Anglers of the Year. Also please bring a dessert to share on our dessert table. Our meal will again be catered by Moe's BBQ, and it is always well worth having to listen to me blather on. ALL paid members with their family (spouse and children), or with one guest for you single folks are invited to attend and partake with us. You may invite additional non-member guests, but the charge is $20 per person. This event is rightly the largest line item on our yearly budget, brought to us by our dues and donations.

I want to thank ALL who came to our November meeting and voted for me! LOL Check's in the mail J/K All our club officers appreciate the support from members and their families through the past year to make this one of our best ever. Uber thanks to the folks who will stay on as officers for next year, plus the "new blood" we have coming onto the Board. Together we will make 2024 the best in ACFA history!

David Thornton—ACFA President (one last year)

NOVEMBER 2ND MEETING RECAP

We had an great November meeting with club member Scott Ellzey of Gulf2Bay as our main speaker!

Scott is an excellent angler with a ton of experience here on the Alabama coast and came loaded with a ton of information on where to find the fish through the late fall/winter transition.

As always we had a great rod and reel raffle and many door prizes. We can't wait to see you at the next one!

DECEMBER BANQUET PREVIEW

Be sure to join us on THIS FRIDAY on December 1st at 6:30 PM at Moe's Downtown BBQ for our annual December Awards Banquets! We will be taking a look back at 2023 and getting ready for another great year in 2024. And (of course) crowning our 2023 Adult and Junior Master Angler! All our contest winners will receive their well-earned prizes during the awards ceremony! It'll be a great night of fellowship with friends and family! Food will be catered by Moe's for all paid members and their families and a guest. If you are bringing additional guests we do ask that they cover the $20 charge to help us with the additional costs. We also ask everyone who can to please bring a dessert to share. Of course, we will have many door prizes and a special Penn Spinfisher VI combo raffle! We hope to see you down there for our biggest event of the year!

FINAL CONTEST WINNERS!

Congratulations to all our contest winners! The adult tournament points stayed tight all year round and ended even tighter with a tie between Perry Stokley and Colton Carlisle! Not surprisingly, Wolfgang Schuchardt took the top junior spot with a commanding lead! Barry Keith racked up fish all over the board to take the BFC win and new member Dusten Brooks landed the CPR contest win with some pier giants! Congratulations to Chatwin Summers for pulling off the Junior BFC win in a tight race against Wolfgang and also to Cooper Garmeson for his impressive winning performance in the Junior CPR category! Everyone fished hard and we had great participation in all the contests! Be sure to come down to the awards ceremony this Friday, December 1st to see who gets crowned ANGLER OF THE YEAR!
