President's Message:

Just three tournaments remaining in the 2023 season, but plenty of chances for a number of anglers to make their mark. Who will rise to the top this year? As expected, our Big Fish categories are filling in nicely with some fine weights leading each species. But there is still plenty of room to add some decent fish. Remember this contest is worth 1/3 of your possible point total toward our Angler of the Year. Also, the CPR contest still has plenty of room to make your mark in it, toward the Angler of the Year...

This month we feature the Mobile Bay Grand Slam in our tournament August 5th, and we will have our annual shrimp boil, cooked by “The Ex-Presidents” led by Keith McGraw. And Romie Perez will again be making his awesomely delicious Deep-Fried Cheesecakes for dessert. This is always a feast to be reckoned with and everyone looks forward to eating their share. The fun starts at our meeting beginning 6:30pm Thursday August 3rd at Moe’s BBQ when we welcome Captain Shane Traylor back as our main speaker followed by Kevin Owens, who will do a ‘Quick Hits’ segment on keeping live bait alive in mid-summer. Our raffle will be a 7-foot spinning combo and an Engel live bait cooler system.

You won’t want to miss either of these speakers!

David Thornton - ACFA President

JULY 6TH MEETING RECAP

We had a busy July meeting with so much awesome info! Our first speaker was Dr. Scott VanLoock of Mobile Dermatology. Dr. Scott educated everyone on the dangers of sun exposure and explained the different forms of skin cancer and followed up with lots of tips on how to avoid those nasty sun-spots. Be sure stay covered up and use sunscreen any time you're going to be out in the sun. Be especially attentive to the UV rays reflecting off the surface of the water. The shade can be just as bad as direct sunlight!

Our second speaker was Capt. Richard Rutland of Cold Blooded Fishing. Captain Richard gave us an absolute clinic on everything summer time fishing. Especially on how to keep having success on artificial lures in the heat, which is definitely a plus with price of live bait these days! It was an information packed session for sure (especially when you include the Rodeo Q&A afterwards!)

JULY 15TH TOURNAMENT REVIEW

It was more than just warm, the weather was downright HOT! But at least the predicted 50% chance of rain never materialized. Thank You, Lord! What did show up was our best turnout of Junior anglers so far this year. And they had entries in four of the five species. The adults made a fine showing too, with entries in all five species categories. Every one was surprised redfish were so hard to come by, though David McDonald's 6.36# entry was the heaviest slot redfish entry yet this year. William Kelly's red fish entry came in second. Team captain Tim Pierce put the Schuchardt's onto some nice southern kingfish. Dad, Shane had a nice "ground mullet" that actually tied Tim's current Big Fish Contest leading weight. And Wolfgang's kingfish was just shy (by 0.01#) of the lead in the Junior BFC.

Other species were well represented with several entries 'bumped' in the speckled trout, flounder, and gafftop catfish categories. Fresh from their Bahamas vacation, Scott Elzey put his family on a strong gafftop bite on topwater plugs, They all placed in gafftop division of their respective tournament and BFC. In fact Riley's 5.93# gafftop is not only the heaviest in the Junior BFC but eclipsed the Adult BFC gafftop caught by her mom earlier this year. Younger brother Bryce, was not far behind with a 5.10# gafftop. Alan Williams took his son, Greyson (not quite 3 years old) to Cedar Point Pier. Greyson landed his personal best gafftop @ 3.90#. After Greyson fell asleep exhausted, Alan pushed the boy's Zebco combo to its limit by landing a 4.80# gafftop on it.

After sorting out some confusion in speckled trout Adult Division, the final results were really quite close with just a tenth of a pound separating the top three places. Davey Miller finished first @ 2.52#, Mike Mims, fishing by himself brought in the second place speck @ 2.46#, and Colton Carlisle was third @ 2.42 pounds. Meanwhile, Mike Sims (fishing with Davey Miller) had the lone Junior angler speckled trout entry. We saw more solid flounder again this month, with Jerry Markow leading the pack at 2.85#, followed by Tim Pierce @ 2.27# and Ron Kalifeh @ 1.76#. Andy Ward had the only flounder in the Junior Division.

On the porch, everything looked and tasted great! Romie Perez was joined once again by the very capable Gwen Pettway, along with newcomer Eric Davidson. They really took the load off of Romie who had been up most of the night nursing that delicious brisket. Brad McDonald had precooked the pork for the BBQ sandwiches which was terrific with the choices of BBQ sauces. And Lynette Kalifeh (whom Romie described as his angel sent from God) again added her personal touch to the cooking area. She also brought gobs of homemade potato salad along with more of those yummy desserts. Someone else brought that nice sheet cake with cream cheese icing, though I am sorry I did not get their name, but THANK YOU TOO!
